

COMMAND TOPICS

April 2022 - "Holocaust Remembrance"

Join us as we continue to enjoy and educate ourselves through a diverse assortment of literature, media, art, film, music and more. The intent of the Command Topics is to help further develop an awareness and understanding of diverse and inclusive topics within our unique community.

Each month the Command topics features a new theme or focus that highlights a particular group, topic or perspective, so make sure to check out previous Command Topics by visiting <https://cascom.army.mil/diversity/>

WHAT ARE WE ...

ABOUT THE ORAL HISTORY COLLECTION

Directed by Virginia Holocaust Museum

The Virginia Holocaust Museum began recording oral histories in 1997 to preserve the firsthand accounts of people who had witnessed genocide. While the Museum's oral history collection originally focused on Holocaust survivors and liberators, it has recently expanded to include other instances of genocide.

WATCHING

READING

The World Must Know: The History of the Holocaust as told in the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

By Michael Berenbaum Illustrated by Arnold Kramer

The World Must Know depicts the evolution of the Holocaust comprehensively, as it is presented in the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C., honors the six-million Jews and millions of other victims of the Nazis during World War II – a memorial to the past and a living reminder of the moral obligations of societies and individuals.

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

First Person Podcast

Listen to interviews with Holocaust survivors, excerpted from First Person public programs at the Museum.

LISTENING

